

INTRODUCING

Stacy Garcia

The Stacy Garcia Studio 2025 Trend Forecast

In the ever-evolving landscape of design, trends serve as the compass guiding us into the future of style and innovation. Stacy Garcia Design Studio is thrilled to announce our presence at High Point Market, where our Founder, Stacy Garcia, holds the esteemed title of Style Spotters Alumni All Star! High Point Market is known for having trend-forward product and as trend forecasters, we look forward to immersing ourselves in what's to come this year!

6 Cutting-edge Trends

With extensive research, our studio has put together 6 cutting-edge trends that are predicted to shape the future of the design industry:

- 1. Oasis speaks to biophilic design and the exponential interest in wellness. It features elements of natural materials, rattan, indoor plants and eco-friendly textiles.
- 2. Tactile Luxury celebrates designs that captivate the senses, from intriguing textures in upholstery and walls to the opulence of marble and stone.
- 3. Metascape is a dreamy take on futuristic and AI-inspired aesthetics. Its elements consist of ombre pastels, curves, liquid lines, smart lighting and exaggerated shapes for an escapist experience.
- 4. Opulent Heritage pays homage to maximalism and traditional design. Featuring traditional florals, layered patterns, animal print and aged velvets. This trend is playful, romantic and enchanting.
- 5. Retro Revival embraces a fusion of vintage charm and modern aesthetics. Characterized by a mix of antique-inspired elements, geometrics and contemporary design, it creates a bold and playful ambiance.
- 6. Imperfect Expression speaks to the creativity of an artist, celebrating artisanal craftsmanship and a blend of cultural influences. Featuring highly textured wood, materials like burl, hickory and global motifs, it emphasizes handmade excellence.

The High Point Market Experience

As design enthusiasts, it's easy to recognize that High Point Market is the epitome of a trend-setting industry event. Year after year, Market brings together a diverse array of designers, manufacturers, and creatives. It allows us to witness the industry's most cutting-edge products and hottest trends firsthand, while connecting with talented individuals.

Anticipating Trends on the Show Floor

We will be attending Market with our trends at hand and anticipation to see what is coming next! While we always look to see whether the trends we forecast are validated in the product being shown, our excitement is equally directed towards uncovering new and emerging trends that may take center stage at Market.

A Shared Love for Market and Trends

Beyond the products and trends, High Point Market provides a unique opportunity for collaboration and networking. Stacy Garcia Studio is excited to connect with industry leaders, designers, and fellow creatives to exchange ideas and insights. See you all in April!
