Erinn Valencich is the founder and creative director of , California based, Erinn V. Design Group. The Erinn V. collection creates dynamic compositions with a heightened sense of drama. This collection of hand-knotted wool and silk rugs reflect her history and inherent understanding of interior architecture. Unique design elements include an over-scaled geometric pattern with bold colorways. The first three pieces in this collection debuted during High Point Market, April 2018. There are an additional three designs in production and will be debuted during summer market and fall market 2018.

For over a decade, Creative Touch has curated an extensive collection of programmed and one-of-a-kind area rugs made and imported from Turkey, India, and Pakistan. Each piece is carefully crafted in wool, silk, bamboo silk, or a blend combining multiple materials. Creative Touch's specialty lies in combining contemporary style with the quality of traditional rug motif. A selection of unique standard sizes is available in stock with styles spanning from award-winning antique reproductions to ultra contemporary abstract pieces. Custom options such as sizes, colors, and designs are available for order as well.
