HURTADO TO PRESENT SANTA BARBARA COLLECTION AT THE SPRING 2019 HIGH POINT MARKET

High Point, NC. (Mar. 25, 2019) – For the Spring 2019 season, HURTADO is set to capture opulent attention with their new Santa Barbara Collection at High Point Market from April 6 – 10, 2019. The Santa Barbara Collection is a full-range collection that has executive office designs, dining tables, chairs, benches, coffee tables, occasional end tables and consoles. HURTADO will celebrate the new designs with a new catalog that will be distributed after market and is proud to present new Eucalyptus woods as part of the collection. The Santa Barbara Collection features HURTADO's touch of classic elegance and is set to carry the HURTADO signature look. This stellar collection can be seen during the market at 208 W. English Rd. High Point, NC.

Santa Barbara Collection

The Santa Barbara Collection is designed by the talented Ana Hurtado, a third generation HURTADO that gained her passion for design and attention to detail through her father and grandfather. The collection is inspired by art. Art is seen as a way to express oneself; to fill our lives with joy, with color, with beauty, even with harmony. Within in, Ana has studied the ever-changing styles and eras of these perceptions of art to find the beauty and passion to bring timeless furnishings to light. Staying true to its concept, HURTADO maintained its timeless design and craftsmanship in their latest designs.

Besides making a great impression at the upcoming High Point Market, HURTADO will also enthrall visitors with this collection at the Salone del Mobile.Milano from April 9 – 14, 2019. HURTADO will be at the Pavilion 3 xLux, Stand F29. As one of the luxury brands in Europe, HURTADO has been a constant at the Salone del Mobile.Milano. HURTADO looks forward to a successful time in both Milan and High Point Market this April. HURTADO will host a welcome event on the evening of April 5th at their High Point Market showroom to officially kick start the season.

The highlighted designs this season are only a preview of the entire collection that can be seen during market. HURTADO will highlight the Santa Barbara Seating Sofa (SSB001) which has a stylish stripe design and luxury fabric. These attributes can be seen in a selection of HURTADO seating chairs such as the Santa Barbara Sidechair (547300) along with the Santa Barbara Armchair (647200) which is made of Beechwood in oak finish. This design is suitable as dining chairs or a simple standalone ornamental piece as part of the decor in a room. These Armchairs that stand at 32 ¼" inches in height seamlessly blend the elements of the modern sleekness and the softness of a classic design. The soft and plush cushion complements the chair and gives the added luxurious element to this collection. HURTADO will also highlight dining tables such as the Santa Barbara Glass Top Dining Table (SB0010-1) and the Santa Barbara Dining Table (SB0010) which features a premier wood top with a geometric inspired design, brass accents, and artfully applied veneer. Another highly anticipated design is the Santa Barbara Bed (SBKP011) which has received a magnificent response due to the stunning upholstered headboard and the unique design of the platform bed as it has an option for storage below the mattress.

Incorporating the diverse mixture of opulence and current day's practicality, the Santa Barbara designs are the answer to heirloom furniture. HURTADO exemplifies the true art of furniture design whilst incorporating contemporary yet sophisticated components into their collections. Be it a Spanish hacienda or an urban apartment, HURTADO makes an impeccable choice for interior furniture.
