Emerald Home returns to Vegas Market

TACOMA, Wash.—Whole-home supplier Emerald Home Furnishings is returning to Las Vegas Market after a three-year absence. While Emerald holds a consistent presence in High Point, they're now coming back to Vegas this winter with boosted product lines and a brand-new mattress program.

"We've recently expanded our premium Cool Jewel mattress line to include two hybrid collections—the Topaz and Jade collections," says Jon Ritchie, Emerald Sleep Systems General Manager with Emerald home. "They join our best-selling Celestine specialty foam collection and our revamped Emerald Sleep Systems program. This new import line is a must-see and has the comfort and quality we're known for with our mattresses."

In addition to showcasing new collections at Market, Emerald has recently re-sourced their popular dining, upholstery, and motion collections to Vietnam and will have them on display as well.

"Our re-sourced best-selling collections are a must-see," says Dean Banks, General Manager with Emerald. "We also have a new, robust accent chair program that brings great style, value, and mixability."

On Sunday, January 26th, Banks and the Emerald team will be on site to toast to the company's return with a wine and cheese mixer. The meet-and-greet will be in the showroom from 4pm-7pm.

"I'm excited to bring our team together with some terrific collections," says Banks. "We'd love to welcome everyone back to the Emerald experience and represent the Pacific Northwest."

The product mix showcased at Market will include bedroom, dining, occasional, upholstery, motion, and mattress collections. Emerald Home will be in Building B, Showroom 846 (8th floor).
