to the United States and Mexico

JANUS et Cie proudly announces its partnership with premier Italian furniture design house, Poltrona Frau. The collections are stocking in the U.S. and will be solely on display in each of the fifteen JANUS et Cie showrooms for the Spring 2022 season.

Renowned for more than a century for its design excellence in interiors, Poltrona Frau makes its first foray into exterior furnishings with the Boundless Living Outdoor Collections. With this launch, Poltrona Frau extends the line between interior and exterior living, offering high design and contemporary furnishings for every outdoor space—from the open-air to the confined.

Solaria

Created by the design team of Ludovica + Roberto Palomba, Solaria is an exceptionally versatile modular seating and lounge collection with a minimalist yet warm, welcoming aesthetic. Offered as two- or three-seat sofas, corner and bench end modules, a tall armchair with or without armrests, and two table options, Solaria features intricately handwoven and knotted ecru rope over powder coated stainless steel and aluminum frames. Solaria sofas are available fully upholstered or with upholstered cushions over elegant, woven structures, while Solaria tables are constructed of smooth, solid teak slats atop linear, powder coated stainless steel bases.

The Secret Garden

Designed by Roberto Lazzeroni, The Secret Garden offers seating and dining options constructed of solid teak. The collection includes a two-seat sofa, sunbed lounge, armchair, dining chair, side tables, and dining tables of 100 percent teak, or teak frames with lustrous, enameled stoneware tops. The collection takes its inspiration from Scandinavian modern design married with contemporary Italian influences. Exquisite joinery and precise craftsmanship are the hallmarks of The Secret Garden. The collection features refined details such as beautifully angled woven web backrests that echo the mosaic tabletops and precise dimensioning of the raw teak to ensure a silken feel in the hand.

Sparkler

An award-winning exterior lighting design by Kensaku Oshiro, Sparkler evokes traditional Japanese rice paper lanterns with influences of organic modernism. Casting a glow of warm light and compelling shadows from its teardrop silhouette, Sparkler is crafted of a basalt-colored powder coated aluminum frame over which fine gauge, taupe polypropylene rope is handwoven in an open, geometric basketweave pattern. Offered in three sizes and powered by a USB-rechargeable LED lamp, Sparkler is lightweight and transportable, and its horseshoe-shaped handle can be suspended from a ceiling, pergola, or its optional freestanding arch support, transforming Sparkler from lantern to luminaire.

A curated selection of luxuriously appointed accessories are also exclusive to the Boundless Living collections, including Bob Outdoor coffee tables, Sherazade rugs and baskets, weather-resistant Grand Vizier rugs, and cushions, offering an array of finishing touches for any exterior or interior decor.
