

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Fine Art Handcrafted Lighting unveils a newly re-imagined showroom.

MIAMI, FL – Fine Art Handcrafted Lighting, the premier design, and manufacturer of high-end decorative lighting, is proud to announce the unveiling of its newly re-imagined showroom in High Point, NC. The state-of-the-art showroom embodies the brand in a modern space as unique and sophisticated as the works of art it showcases.

Designed in collaboration with renowned local design firm, Barbour Spangle Design, the new showroom offers guests a welcoming and comfortable experience, while immersed in the unparalleled elegance of Fine Art's creations.

"We are thrilled to have our vision finally come to life," said Rene Quintana, Principal at Fine Art Handcrafted Lighting. "As we celebrate our 5th anniversary of ownership, our new flagship showroom is a true reflection of the Fine Art Handcrafted Lighting brand. Every detail of the space was carefully selected to showcase our commitment to quality and innovation."

Laura Goldblum, Principal, added: "We are proud to be Made in America and believe that quality craftsmanship should never be compromised. Our goal was to create a beautiful space that celebrates form and function. This is a gallery of artful lighting where we honor lighting as an art form, and we hope our guests will be inspired as they explore the many possibilities for their lighting needs. We want you to feel at home in our new showroom and invite you to come celebrate with us! We have lots of exciting events planned as we inaugurate our new home in High Point!"

From wall sconces and pendants to chandeliers and lamps, Fine Art's signature collections are pristinely displayed to thrill your senses. Each piece is handcrafted with meticulous attention to detail, resulting in truly unique creations that bring any space to life.

The grand re-opening of the showroom marks an exciting milestone for Fine Art Handcrafted Lighting as they continue to grow. Their exceptional selection of quality handcrafted pieces in the beautifully re-imagined space promises to make Fine Art the "can't miss" destination of the High Point market.
