New Ares Collection: Textural, Timeless Teak

JANUS et Cie introduces Ares, a comprehensive dining and lounge collection that takes subtle influences from midcentury modern silhouettes to a new level of understated elegance, composed of luxurious, refined materials.

The new Ares collection is highly textural, offering a harmonious confluence of intricately woven rope and deep cushions, premium teak, and Carrara marble. Comprised of ten pieces, Ares is available in two classically neutral, monochromatic colorways—Fossil, a cool grey hue, and Cocoa, a rich, warm brown—each complemented by substantial frames in a grieger, Driftwood finish. The Ares dining tables are flawlessly crafted of premium, FSC-certified solid teak and are available with a choice of teak or Carrara marble inset tabletops while Ares side and cocktail tables are topped with Carrara marble. Chair and sofa seats are supported by sturdy polyvinyl mesh panels.

Gentle angles and innovative details take Ares from contemporary to transitional aesthetics and beyond, while endlessly durable engineering and exacting craftsmanship bring the sophistication of fine interior design outdoors where it will beautifully endure the rigors of exterior settings. The Ares collection pairs exceptionally well with JANUS et Cie's Rock Garden and Gina collections.

Ares collection includes:
