FROM OCTOBER HIGH POINT MARKET

HIGH POINT, N.C., Oct. 24, 2023 – Style leader and custom home furnishings manufacturer Vanguard Furniture debuted an array of trend-forward upholstery and casegoods at the recent fall High Point Market. Expanding on its organic luxe approach to furniture design, this market's introductions showcase a mix of materials—including rich woodgrains, natural stone, cast aluminum, and soft metal accents. Paired with Vanguard's legendary tailoring and artisanal attention to detail, these sophisticated looks convey a modern, nature-inspired attitude.

Here are some of the standout introductions favorited by interior designers and retailers during High Point Market:

Origami Chair

As intriguing as its name, this fully upholstered chair makes a head-turning statement in style. An engineering marvel, Origami features a curvy silhouette shaped like the letter "M" with a suspended seat that appears to float in the middle. Its internal metal frame ensures a stable, comfortable seating experience while exquisite tailoring and welt detailing accentuate its distinctive curves. The Oak Sled Base adds a finishing touch to the legs of this trend-forward design.

Banks Sofa

The Banks sofa takes seating design to the next level with an inspired mix of materials. Its classic shape and rounded track arm silhouette are heightened with the inspired addition of a natural wood back and base. The epitome of modern organic styling, this handsome sofa conveys gravitas—feeling substantial yet equally at ease in any space. Narrow metal side trim finished in Soft Brass adds another layer of luxe. Also available are the coordinating Banks chair and Banks swivel chair.

Its captivating design gives a nod to the Arts & Crafts movement yet feels firmly rooted in modernity. A narrow, open oak frame back creates Wright’s inspired T-shaped silhouette. Two rounded, supporting legs flank the front of this chair while a plushly upholstered seat cushion and fully upholstered top bolster cushion deliver unmistakable comfort.
