BROYHILL: LET'S BRING STYLE TO THE TABLE

Occasional Groups Complement Upholstery Fashion Statements for Spring

April 20, 2013, HIGH POINT, NC — Complementing the clean looks, simple shapes and pops of color that characterize Broyhill's fashion-forward upholstery introductions this Market, new occasional groups are designed to make a statement in any space.

Drawing on best-selling styles in its casegoods lines from October Market, Meramac is a relaxed contemporary look rendered in oak solids and veneers with a café finish available as a rectangular coffee table with glass insert top, two drawer cocktail table, end, lamp and chair-side tables, as well as a sofa/media table with storage and open space for electronic components. Creswell moves its new two-tone take on dining room into the occasional category by combining cherry and antique white finishes on pin-knotty cherry veneers and hardwood solids for select pieces. Available in cherry finish are: rectangular and round cocktail tables, end table, sofa/media table and chair side table. Two-tone finishes are available on a round cocktail table and a chairside table. All pieces have storage drawers.

Creswell is available in a warm two-tone finish

In addition to Bedroom, Estes Park, with elements of American mission and rustic, is also being introduced in occasional. In oak solids and oak veneers with a dark, Artisan

Arisa features a reeded saber leg oak finish and antique pewter handle pulls, its versatile transitional style give is broad appeal. The group includes a large rectangular cocktail table with storage drawer, a starting price point rectangular cocktail, end with drawer, chair-side table and end,

Harlan offers a contemporary look in a dark ash veneer finish, along with thoughtful design elements like a granite insert in the round cocktail table and easy-to-move casters, along with adjustable shelves and drawers in the media/sofa table. Lana rounds out the offering with traditionally styled oval and round cocktail tables crafted of maple burl veneers and hardwood solids that are ideally suited to sectional seating. Round chair-side and end tables along with a demilune sofa table completes the look. Arisa is a transitional airy look with reeded saber leg. Pieces include rectangular cocktail table with casters, lift top wedge cocktail with casters, end with drawer, chair-side table with pull out shelf and media/sofa table with two drawers.
