Emerald Home to launch 2019 outdoor line exclusively at High Point Market

TACOMA, Wash.—Whole home supplier Emerald Home Furnishings announced the release of their 2019 outdoor furniture series will occur during this spring's High Point Market.

"Our 2019 outdoor lineup is ready and will be in our High Point showroom," says David Beckmann, CEO of Emerald Home. "The new outdoor collections will only be at High Point or in our standing showrooms, so if you're looking to see this year's product launch from Emerald Outdoor, come see us during High Point Market."

Emerald will be showcasing currently available pieces along with brand new outdoor collections including dining, lounge, and occasional collections that combine modern lines, classic silhouettes, and all-weather materials. With durable materials and relaxing comfort, Emerald Outdoor dining and lounge furniture brings style, quality, and value to any outdoor line.

"We'll be showing off our outdoor furniture early this year instead of waiting until the summer Casual Market like we have typically done in the past. We're releasing our newest product earlier than ever so you can get a jump on summer," says Doug Spencer, President of Emerald. "David and I will be there along with our team of experts to walk you through what's new. We hope to see you there."

The Emerald showroom at High Point is in the Centers of High Point Hamilton Building, Showroom 201. Advance appointments for a showroom tour can be made here online.
