ANNOUNCING TRANSFORMATIONS FROM RO SHAM BEAUX AND MABLEY HANDLER INTERIOR DESIGN
A New Lighting Collection that Blends Artistry with Functionality

High Point, North Carolina (April 2024) – Ro Sham Beaux and Mabley Handler Interior Design are pleased to announce the unveiling of their new collaboration at the April 2024 High Point Furniture Market. Titled TRANSFORMATIONS, the lighting collection of 25 SKUs features organic materials and glamorous, deco-inspired forms with a heavy dose of metropolitan elegance.

Ro Sham Beaux founder Ann Yancy says, “As an artist, I view lighting as functional art pieces that make a statement and elevate an interior. They are the earrings of the home, offering intriguing illumination and materiality. Ro Sham Beaux is just shy of its 15th year, and this collection is Ro Sham Beaux’s inaugural design collaboration. I could not be more pleased to have found a wonderful partnership in Mabley Handler Interior Design, starting a new transformational chapter for Ro Sham Beaux.”

Jennifer Mabley, Mabley Handler Interior Design principal, says, “We first met Ann and her team when they launched Ro Sham Beaux at the New York Gift Show, and we immediately knew they were on to something special. Their light fixtures were both informed and gutsy. It was unlike anything else we’d seen in the market. We always seek out the new and unexpected in our designs with a reverence for the past and artful forms, so this collaboration felt organic and exciting.”

Austin Handler, Mabley Handler Interior Design principal, continues, “Our lighting collection with Ann and Ro Sham Beaux was born out of our desire to collaborate with people and brands that we love, because we feel that is the best way to harness the collective energy necessary to create beautiful things. The fixtures in this collection have a cosmopolitan sophistication, balanced with a natural refinement. They speak to our shared aesthetic vision of how great lighting brings nuance and creative sparks to our interiors, while also reflecting our journey as a design firm.”

The collection will be available through Ro Sham Beaux’s showrooms and dealers across America. The Ro Sham Beaux High Point Showroom is located at 122 North Main Street, High Point, North Carolina.
