Modern chair with sophisticated details

Designed by Jens Juul Eilersen, the elegant lounge chair invites you to get cosy and comfy.

"Cone is intended to be a comfortable and curved chair that can fit in anywhere. It should feel cosy and inviting," says Jens Juul Eilersen, 3rd generation Eilersen.

With its welcoming open arms, Cone invites you to sit back and relax. The curved surfaces and soft shapes create a feeling of well-being and comfort. Yet the chair is much more than just its attractive exterior; with its gently curved back and armrests it is also highly functional, supporting the body in the best ergonomic way possible.

Personalise your very own Cone

With an impressive choice of fabrics and leathers, you can personalise your Cone armchair to match any interior design and thus create your own unique version. With the Cone armchair, Eilersen continues its tradition of making furniture that unites form and function in perfect harmony.
