

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Brexton Cole x Oliver Gal: A Fusion of Timeless Elegance and Modern Artistry

Miami, FL – March 2025 – Oliver Gal and Brexton Cole Interiors are excited to unveil the Brexton Cole x Oliver Gal Collection, a captivating collaboration that blends the splendor of Versailles with a contemporary edge. Curated by interior designer Valerie Darden of Brexton Cole Interiors and brought to life through the artistry of Lola Sanchez, Chief Creative Officer of Oliver Gal, this collection invites European-inspired luxury into the modern home.

Join us for the exclusive collection reveal at the 2025 High Point Market! On Monday, April 28th, from 2-4pm, visit the Oliver Gal showroom at IHFC C365 to see this extraordinary collection firsthand. Sip on bubbly as you explore the pieces and experience the fusion of Versailles-inspired luxury and modern artistry.

Inspired by the opulence and feminine allure of Marie Antoinette's Versailles, the collection incorporates hand-applied gold leaf, diamond dust finishes, and striking imagery that fuses historical grandeur with fresh, modern sophistication. The result is a series of pieces that feel both timeless and groundbreaking.

"This collection represents a perfect balance of elegance and modern artistry," said Ana Sanchez Gal, CEO of Oliver Gal. "Valerie's keen design sense beautifully aligns with our commitment to creating luxurious, livable statement art."

The collection's inspiration dates back to Valerie's 2012 honeymoon visit to the Palace of Versailles. "I've admired Oliver Gal since its inception—before I was even a designer," said Valerie. "Their chic yet edgy aesthetic really spoke to me. This collection embodies my passion for combining historic charm with modern, unexpected accents."

Highlighting her favorite pieces, Valerie shared her admiration for Running Alice and Flying Over Gold Surfboard. Running Alice evokes a magical moment of a woman in a regal gown running through a French garden beneath sparkling chandeliers, while Flying Over Gold Surfboard is a bold, dynamic piece that instantly energizes a room. "One transports you to another time, while the other brings a modern edge," explained Lola Sanchez. "This contrast defines the collection and reflects Valerie's unique interpretation of Versailles elegance."

Art, to Valerie, is the jewelry of a room—the final touch that elevates a space and creates a "wow" factor. Valerie emphasized the importance of selecting art that complements both the size and emotional tone of a room. Lola echoed her sentiment, noting that the collection's versatility allows it to become an instant focal point, whether in a historic home or a modern penthouse.

"At Oliver Gal, we are always exploring innovative techniques and collaborations that push the boundaries of luxury art," said Ana Sanchez Gal. "The Oliver Gal x Brexton Cole Collection is a perfect example of how historical inspiration and modern innovation can coexist beautifully."

The Brexton Cole x Oliver Gal Collection will launch in April 2025, offering a stunning range of art that transforms any wall into a statement piece. Experience Versailles-inspired luxury, reimagined for modern living.

Valerie Darden founded Brexton Cole Interiors in 2014, naming it after her two sons. Based in Virginia, the firm has successfully completed residential and commercial projects along the East Coast, with work featured in top design publications. Valerie also shares her expertise as a commentator in magazines and blogs like HGTV Magazine, Elle Decor, and Southern Living, and is the author of Beautiful Living. She resides in Virginia with her husband Jonathan and their two sons, Cole and Brexton. @brextoncoleinteriors

About Oliver Gal:

Founded in 2012 by sisters Ana Sánchez-Gal and Lola Sánchez, Oliver Gal is a contemporary art brand that transforms spaces through high-end, bespoke artwork. Over the years, the company has earned multiple accolades, including the ARTS Award for Best Wall Art Manufacturer, and is renowned for its trendsetting designs and artistic innovation. Having grown into a global leader in the wall art products industry, Oliver Gal is redefining the landscape of high-end wall art and reinventing century-old practices within the art industry. Specializing in in-house design, the brand creates versatile wall art tailored to meet the specific needs of both luxury and value-focused retailers, solidifying its position as a leader in luxury home décor

For media inquiries, contact: kristingregory@olivergal.com | (954) 246-0155

