CHADDOCK FURNITURE WORKROOM NEW PRODUCT GUIDE FALL 2019 HIGH POINT MARKET

Mary McDonald Introductions

Mary McDonald's Fall collection offers a range of luxe yet livable pieces—which recall the spirit of French Modernism and the designer's own architectural aesthetic.

---

Cubist Console Table

A blend of oak and maple finished to enhance the woods' natural grains, Mary McDonald's Cubist Console illustrates the designer's appreciation of structure with a bold, asymmetrical expression.

(MM1965-44)

36W x 28D x 30H

(MM1965-45)

52W x 28D x 30H

---

Cantilever Side Table

Well-balanced with a large, chamfered column connecting three tiers, the forthright cerused oak Cantilever Side Table is versatile—working well in pairs or as a singular, architectural statement.

(MM1964-42)

28W x 28D x 27H

---

Origami Sofa

This contemporary interpretation of the shelter sofa recalls the modern elegance of early 20th century French upholstery with a tall yet understated back, which supports three broad pillows and a tailored, single-cushion seat.

(MM1952-3)

102W x 41D x 38H

---

Heston Chair

A study in the perfectly edited simplicity of 1930s Paris upholstery, the handsome Heston Chair is distinguished by its substantial scale, T-cushion seat and back and clean, angular lines.

(MM1956-1)

35.5W x 36.5D x 33H

---

Opus Table

Balancing simple shapes with delicate proportions in the spirit of early French Modernism, Mary McDonald's Opus Table suspends an oak top—featuring a sunburst pattern—and shelf within three vertical legs for a minimalistic yet elegant look.

(MM1962-43)

18 13/16 Dia. x 24H, side table

(MM1962-62)

13 3/8 Dia. x 24H, drink table

---

Stonehenge Coffee Table

Bold and structural, the Stonehenge Coffee Table illustrates the powerful simplicity of early modernist designs. The piece is distinguished by a commanding presence and distilled, elemental composition: two large cerused oak blocks connected by a suspended maple top.

(MM1963-40)

60W x 38D x 17H
