Spectra Home Launches Expansive Leather Program Showcasing Luxury Seating at Affordable Pricing

High Point, NC, October 13, 2020 – Upholstery and accents specialist, Spectra Home, is debuting Spectra Leather, a full stationary leather seating program, at the October High Point Market. Designed around in-stock, warehoused goods as well as items available for customization, the program includes a substantial 35 sofa groups plus accent chairs. New and hot-selling selections from Spectra Leather are on display in the company's new leather gallery during the October High Point Market. The Spectra Home showroom is located at 200 North Hamilton, North Court, 213.

Spectra Home's commitment to leather seating goes back years but the new Spectra Leather program, along with new frames and covers, brings the depth of the company's resources to light. Now it can highlight many of its strengths—it owns its own tannery, for example—and its competitive advantages such as industry-leading eight-way hand-tied construction, hardwood frames, and down-filled cushions for seats and backs. Plus, many of Spectra Home's fabric sofas and chairs can be special ordered in leather, further upping the assortment of styles and silhouettes from which to choose.

Exclusively using top-grain, aniline-dyed leathers and suedes, Spectra Home's selections include modern, European-inspired profiles with metal bases, comfortable English roll arm styles, track arm contemporaries, classic Chesterfield shapes and Lawson-inspired designs. While tonal, neutral shades from honey to port continue in popularity, Spectra Home sees success with a broader array of colors encompassing blue, gray and ivory and green.

Accent chairs run the style spectrum from softly feminine to classic smoking-room shapes. Nail head trim, finely executed button tufting, contrast welting and channel stitching are just a few of the added finishing details offered through the Spectra Leather program. Ottomans are also available.

Leather sofas will retail from $1799 to $2999 and address a range of sizes from 79 inches up to 118 inches.
