Introducing Rondo, a Well-Rounded Approach to Seating

JANUS et Cie has taken inspiration from classic, barrel-back chairs and midcentury silhouettes to create Rondo, a luxurious new seating collection. The Rondo collection launches with five pieces: an armchair, barstool with arms, counter stool with arms, lounge chair, and ottoman.

Rondo's curved backs cradle the body in comfortable support while tapered, conical legs maintain clean, spare lines for a sense of minimalism and lightness. Handwoven seats and backs in an open, geometric pattern invite shadow and light to play. The Rondo collection is composed of sturdy, powder coated aluminum frames with taut panels of olefin rope for exceptional durability. Available in two finishes—Graphite/Shale and Talc/Fossil—Rondo features a combination of two ropes in complementary tones to create visual depth and textural interest and can be used with or without cushions.

Rondo offers transitional, contemporary profiles and neutral colorways that enhance its versatility while complementing a wide variety of design aesthetics and palettes. Rondo coordinates beautifully with a myriad of JANUS et Cie collections, including Knot, Conic, and our powder coated aluminum dining tables. Rondo is well suited to high-traffic areas in hospitality, commercial, and residential settings.

Rondo collection includes:

- Armchair
- Barstool with Arms
- Counter Stool with Arms
- Lounge Chair
- Ottoman

Rondo finishes:

- Graphite/Shale
