JOHN-RICHARD RELOCATES HEADQUARTERS, OPENS NEW DISTRIBUTION FACILITY

High Point, NC – October 1, 2023 – John-Richard, a leading supplier in luxury home furnishings and décor announces a significant shift in its business landscape with the relocation of its corporate headquarters and centralized distribution facility to a spacious 236,000 square foot facility in Whitsett, North Carolina.

The company has operated in the Mississippi Delta since it was founded in 1980. “After a transition of ownership in 2020, a strategic decision was made to relocate key components of the growing operation to North Carolina. Scheduled for October 15th, John-Richard will shift its corporate operations to the Piedmont Triad, an area that has long been acknowledged as the heart and soul of the furniture industry,” states Andrea Kimbrell, COO.

The Triad not only provides access to a large pool of local talent that fosters strong partnerships but also serves as a phenomenal distribution hub, offering easy access to several east coast ports and an extensive network of major highways, factors that significantly enhance the company’s logistics agility.

Located in Greenwood, Mississippi, John-Richard’s previous headquarters will continue to operate as a manufacturing hub for the company’s art and botanical lines. Currently operating out of an additional leased facility totaling 430,000 square feet, the company will now consolidate into its company-owned facility, made possible by the move of its distribution to North Carolina. The company will still have a significant footprint in Mississippi, occupying 250,000 square feet and well over 100 employees.

Plans are in place to rework the owned property with the aim of increasing capacity and expanding production capabilities. The company plans some exciting new initiatives in its art lines beginning in the October High Point Market.

Scheduled for October 15th, this strategic move positions the company at the heart of the home furnishings industry, facilitating strong partnerships and enhancing access to key resources.

As John-Richard continues to evolve, its unwavering dedication to timeless design and superior quality remains stronger than ever. The company believes that the move to North Carolina will greatly improve its service to customers.
