Los Angeles, CA, March 25, 2024 – Sagebrook Home | Elevarre known for being an industry home décor trend leader and is growing at a fast-pace, is celebrating the success of new growth milestones particularly with new high-end brand, Elevarre and new designer programs, coming this April High Point Market.

“Our brand new and expanded showroom benchmarked the debut of our successful launch of our new brand Elevarre, which we will be introducing new designer programs this Spring.” stated Justin Kachan, CEO of Sagebrook Home. “Being a number one resource for designers as well as retailers alike is our solid goal for 2024. We aim to be the easiest company to buy from, ranging from any customer base at Market.”

The company will be introducing over 1000 new items this Spring season, which encompasses both Sagebrook Home and Elevarre brands. The new Elevarre collection featuring innovative designs using premium materials includes accessories, home accents, lighting, and wall art that feature an intentional focus on dimension and texture to create pieces that are sophisticated, transitional and fashion forward. Also, market-exclusive promotions for Sagebrook Home on select trending product will be showcased this Spring.

Sagebrook Home | Elevarre experienced record-breaking attendance and sales goals in the history of all their High Point Markets in Fall 2023. The new showroom calls the fifth floor of IHFC its new home, Suite D-520. Spanning into a 25,000 sq. ft. showroom more than doubling their previous space.

“We have been non-stop thus far in 2024. We attribute the success of the year’s progress from a strong January Market season and increased customer demand with our January intros and new well-received Elevarre brand. Our entire team is highly motivated and moving on a fast train and we are having the best time.” Kachan concluded.
