FINE FURNITURE DESIGN EXPANDS PROTÉGÉ UPHOLSTERY WITH FRESH NEW PIECES, UNIQUE DESIGN DETAILS, AND EXQUISITE FABRIC COMBINATIONS

HIGH POINT, N.C., Oct. 17, 2015 –Sometimes it’s the little things that make the biggest impact. Crisp button tabs on a tailored waterfall skirt. Airy geometric fretwork over an upholstered outside back. Light metal accents on gently flared legs.

“Our new silhouettes are gorgeous, and the fabrics are stunning, but what really stands out are all the special touches that make Protégé upholstery unique,” says Eric Graham, president of Fine Furniture Design. “You’ll discover impeccably crafted, fresh takes on traditional profiles, as well as beautiful tufting, unique nail head trims and exquisite fabric combinations. Spring 2016 is all about the details.”

Several of the Protégé upholstery introductions are designed to coordinate with the new Fine Furniture Designs collections, Brentwood and Campton Grove. There are 25 new fabrics among the company’s 250 fabrics and seven new wood finishes among the 26 finishes. Highlights of the new Protégé upholstery include:

Lex Sofa and Easton Chair: Crisp curves and clean lines distinguish the softly contemporary Lex Sofa, which has slender sloped arms, tapered wood feet and a loose back and seat cushions in a two-over-two configuration. The coordinating Easton Chair, has dramatic swoop arms, a tight back, loose seat cushion and tapered feet.

Rowan Sofa, Chair and Ottoman: With a sleek low-profile take on a traditional Chesterfield sofa, the Rowan Sofa and Chair feature button tufting on the rolled arms and tight back, as well as nail head trim on the arms and base rail. The coordinating Rowan Ottoman has nail head trim outlining the base and tapered feet.

Philomena Sofa: The sassy and space conscious Philomena Sofa has an elegantly shaped exposed wood frame with a tight back, bench seat cushion and cabriole legs.

Isabella Sofa: With a graceful channel back, waterfall skirt, gently flared arms and three loose seat cushions, Isabella is truly transitional. Dress it up or go casual with the perfect fabric.

Beckett Sofa: Perfect for urban living or tucked in a bedroom, the trim Beckett Sofa has a tight back, two loose seat cushions, tapered legs and just the tiniest roll to its slender arms. Crisp nail head trim defines the linear base.

Saffron Chair: With a tight back, loose seat cushion and slender curved arms, the Saffron Lounge Chair has a sculptural profile that is equally at home in contemporary or traditional spaces. With gently flared legs and a simple stretcher, Saffron also is available skirted with tailored button tab details.

Fiona Chair: Perfect as a dining or desk chair, the oval-back Fiona occasional chair has an upholstered back and seat and turned wood legs. Nail head trim accentuates the recessed back.

Willa Chair: Softened lines and contemporary details add fresh appeal to Willa, a traditional cane oval back side chair with an upholstered seat. Light metal accents brighten its gently flared legs.

Brooke Chair: Wood fretwork, in an intersecting geometric pattern, adds interest to the upholstered outside back of the Brooke Arm Chair. Brooke has an exposed wood frame with upholstered arm pads and a loose cushion seat and loose back.

Finley Chair: Diamond pattern button tufting distinguishes the tight back of the Finley Chair, which has slightly rolled sloped arms and slender tapered legs.

Chloe Vanity Stool: Created to complement the Madeline Vanity in the Brentwood collection, the Chloe Vanity Stool features a tufted round seat with a single button, a low channel back and a waterfall skirt.

Romi Chair: The exposed wood Romi Chair has a tight back and tight seat with tapered, flared legs.

Victoria Banquette: The Victoria Double Banquette, Single Banquette and Corner Banquette, which coordinate with the Nicole Pedestal Table in the Brentwood collection, can be arranged in multiple configurations. The versatile banquettes feature tight bench seats and biscuit tufted backs with long tapered legs.
