FURNITURE AS MODERN ART

GEOMETRICS, ABSTRACTS, AND REFLECTIVE SHINY SURFACES

(Lenoir NC, April 16, 2016) — Forget about following a trend. Today's shopper has the freedom, confidence, and desire to express her true and unique decorative spirit. This season, Bernhardt introduces a variety of fresh new looks, each with a totally different feeling, to encourage and empower personal expression.

Say hello to furniture as modern art sculpture—geometric forms jazzed up by unexpected pairings, abstract art patterns, and reflective metal surfaces that create a flickering light show.

“These are pieces with personality,” says Heather Eidenmiller, director of brand development. “Each piece is simple and classic in structure, and artful in expression. We think they reflect an evolving and powerful personal style.”
