HER START

Before Beth launched her textile collection in 2006, she worked for Atlanta accessories designer Carolyn Tanner—an experience that continues to inform her work. "Designing pieces with global inspiration taught me the importance of focusing on the tiniest details," says Beth. Today the fabrics and pillows she produces remain true to her original, eclectic aesthetic, from bright patterns inspired by travels around the world to one-of-a-kind trims.

WHAT'S NEXT

Look for Beth's new art-focused prints, influenced by watercolor brushstrokes and exotic hand-blocked motifs, available as fabrics and pillows. She will also be debuting a collection of ready-made draperies with her signature detailing.

"Work at something you enjoy that's worthy of your time and talent," says Beth. "And don't do anything that wouldn't make your mother proud." ■
